

Aboriginal Cultural Awareness for Youth

Course Overview:

The Aboriginal Cultural Awareness for Youth course has been created to help non-Aboriginal children and youth to have a better understanding of Aboriginal culture and learn to respect Aboriginal people. To reach this goal, the course will explain how culture affects the way we think and the way we act. It will talk about the history of Canada and how things that happened in the past have created issues and problems for Aboriginal people today.

Who Should Take the Course?

This course is designed for youth with interactive activities to provide a better understanding of Aboriginal culture.

Course Objectives:

Ultimately, the goal of Aboriginal Cultural Awareness for Youth is to help non-Aboriginal children and youth to develop respect for Aboriginal culture and understand the issues that are important to Aboriginal people.

The course is presented in 4 modules:

1. Culture
2. The Aboriginal Peoples of Canada
3. The History of Aboriginal Peoples in Canada
4. Present and Future Challenges for Aboriginal People

Evaluation Process:

At the end of each module, there is a test. Participants must successfully complete the test before continuing to the next module. Participants that do not achieve 100% can review the module content and try as many times as necessary to advance and complete the course. Test questions are randomly selected from a test bank, making each test unique.

Upon successfully completing all modules, there is a printable certificate for your records.

Course Duration:

This online course is self-paced. Participants may leave the course at anytime and can resume where they left off. Each module of Aboriginal Cultural Awareness for Youth will take approximately 45 minutes to 1 hour to complete. The duration will depend on the individual participant and their prior knowledge of the subject matter. On average, the course will take between 3 - 4 hours to complete.
